

Michael Puro, Toll Road

After serving as the mayor of Goshen for nine years, Mike Puro accepted the position as director of the Indiana Toll Road four years ago. Puro holds a bachelor's degree in industrial management from Purdue University.

The Toll Road, which has no subdistricts, employs 500 full-time employees, 55 intermittent toll attendants and maintains 635 lane miles.

Indiana is divided into seven districts for the purpose of organizing and managing highway construction, maintenance, traffic, development and testing.

The Toll Road District, which is responsible for the planning and management of the Indiana Toll Road, follows Interstate 80/90. The other six districts are further divided into 34 subdistricts.

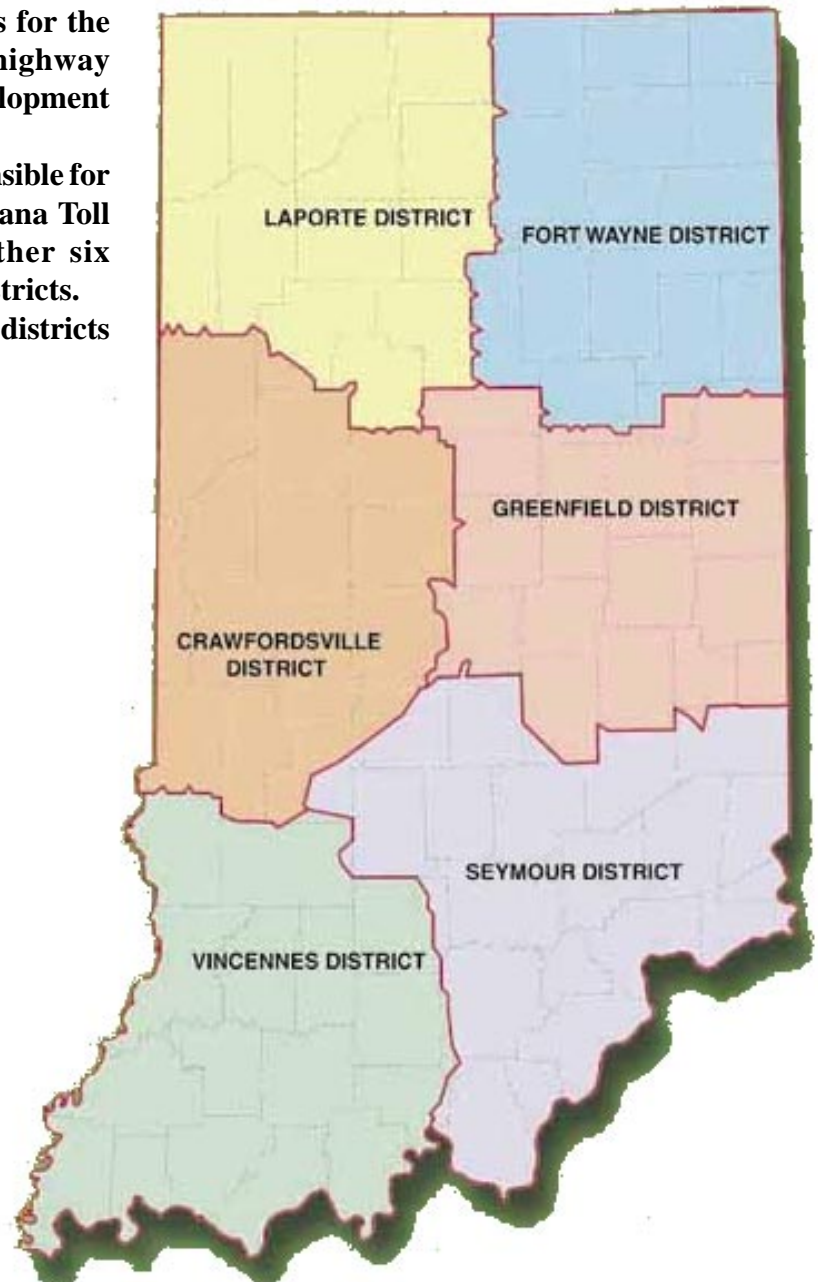

Specific duties for the districts and subdistricts are:

Districts

- Construction of state roads, U.S. routes and interstates
- Development of highway construction projects
- Traffic signs, signals and pavement markings
- Safety coordination
- Rest parks
- Permits

Subdistricts

- Maintenance of state roads, U.S. routes and interstates
- Snow removal
- Removal of debris from highways
- Mowing
- Permits

Districts and Subdistricts